DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY – CLASSICS – 2016-17

In addition to departmental requirements, candidates for graduate degrees must fulfill University requirements described in the “Graduate Education” section of the UCSB General Catalog.

Candidates for the Ph.D. must satisfy the requirements for the M.A. in Classics if they have not already done so. A minimum of 36 additional graduate units in classics are required, including Greek 240 or Latin 210, whichever was not completed for the M.A. All courses must be completed with a ‘B’ or better. Students are expected to maintain a GPA of at least 3.0. The time-to-degree for the Ph.D. is five years to advance to candidacy, seven years to complete the degree.

ADVANCEMENT TO CANDIDACY/DISSERTATION

Students are eligible to advance to candidacy after completing the required coursework and the paper and examination requirements.

Doctoral form II submitted and Advancement fee paid: _____

The final requirement for the doctoral program is for the candidate to complete a dissertation, which must be an original work based on independent research. An oral defense of the dissertation is administered by the student’s Dissertation Committee after completion of the dissertation. This is a public event (i.e. faculty and anyone interested may attend).
