DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY – HISPANIC LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES – 2022-23
IBERIAN LINGUISTICS SPECIALIZATION (CONTINUING STUDENTS)

In addition to departmental requirements, candidates for graduate degrees must fulfill University requirements described in the “Graduate Education” section of the UCSB General Catalog.

The following requirements are for continuing students who received their M.A. in Spanish (Iberian Linguistics Specialization) at UCSB. In addition to the requirements indicated below, students are encouraged to take additional courses, including courses offered by other departments. All students are expected to maintain a GPA of at least 3.0. Students must take courses for a letter grade to achieve the minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 required to remain in good standing. Students must receive a grade of B or better in a required course for it to count toward fulfillment of departmental degree requirements.

Time-to-degree: 4 years to advance to candidacy, 6 years to complete the degree.

Graduate committee approval is required for students to take independent study courses, graduate courses outside the department, and/or undergraduate courses. Students should refer to the Graduate Student Handbook for further guidance and additional requirements when enrolling in these types of courses.

| All students are required to demonstrate a reading knowledge of another language other than Spanish, Portuguese, and English. In order to fulfill this requirement the student must take the Foreign Language Examination, in which the student is asked to translate a text in a foreign language. The text should be approximately 300-400 words in length and the student has a limit of two hours to complete the translation. Exam completed (mm/dd/yy): _____ _ Language: _____ |

| Ph.D. Qualifying EXAMINATION/ADVANCEMENT TO CANDIDACY |
|--|
| The objective of the Ph.D. Qualifying Examination is to assess the candidate's mastery of the general topic that will constitute the basis for the Ph.D. dissertation. Overall, the student must demonstrate the necessary scholarly preparation and skills to carry out independent research. The Ph.D. Qualifying Examination consists of 1) a discussion of a published article, and 2) a discussion of the student's dissertation research proposal. Upon passing both parts of the examination (article discussion and dissertation proposal) the student advances to candidacy. If a student fails any part of the examination, the student will be allowed to retake it one more time and no later than the 8 th week of the following quarter. Exam passed on (date): _____ |

DISSERTATION

The final requirement for the doctoral program is for the candidate to complete a dissertation, which must be an original work based on independent research. The student must meet formally with the full Dissertation Committee at least once per year in order to assess the progress of the dissertation. When all of the corrections and revisions have been made, a final version will be submitted to the Committee for approval. After the Dissertation Committee has approved the dissertation, the student will file the dissertation according to university guidelines.
